

THE LATIN SOUND OF CHÉJERE IN THE AMERICA'S SQUARE AT EXPO NEXT WEEK

- A Latin sound with traditional Mexican music and Afro Latin rhythms will make the people dance in the America's Square on June 7 and 8.
- The group Chéjere will offer a show to make the body speak, the soul dream and the senses enjoy.

Famous group Chéjere, considered a master in the fusion of traditional Mexican music and Afro Latin Rhythms, will perform in several concerts in the America's Square at Shanghai's expo on June 7 and 8 at 19:30.

With more than 15 years of musical history and a lot of success among the Mexican public and abroad, the group Chéjere, integrated by 8 members -Alonso Borja, Álvaro Alcántara, Carlos Tovar, Jorge Cortés, Mariel Henry, Natalia Cobos, Leonardo Soqui, José Machuca- will bring the Chinese and foreign audience a show full of authentic poetry, charming jazz music and dances, African music, the Veracruz sound, the Afro Caribbean music, and Afro European music. Make the body speak, let the soul dream, and let the senses enjoy!

Founded in 1996, the band combines different expressions of Mexican sound, with rhythms and genera of different places around the globe.

For such reason, the group started its performances in plazas, festivals, theaters, and forums, not only in Mexico but, also abroad. They have spent their last world tours in Washington D.C., New York, Maryland State through USA in 2007, and at Nagoya Japan, and Beijing China in 2008.

Albums

- “Chéjere con son” (2005)
- “Villatrópico” (2010)

Chéjere, a little bit from everywhere

That’s how the band defines itself: “Chéjere’s music is an adventure in which a path has to be lived through the rhythms of the orb, in which, the marvelous can happen, where fantasy and reality merge together. Because Chéjere at the same time is a little bit Veracruzanian, a bit Mexican and bit from around the world”.

America’s Square Location

America’s Square is situated in Zona C8 at Expo, in front of Mexico’s Pavilion.
